Business From The Floor

Jeff Peters, of 134 Spring Meadow Lane, shared a concern he has with the speed of vehicles in the LeTort Manor neighborhood. Mr. Peters believes that the speed at which these vehicles go exceeds 25 miles per hour. Mr. Peters conducted a small traffic study on his own, and in his opinion several individuals are traveling approximately 32 miles per hour. He also stated he believes several commercial vehicles that are exceeding the speed limit.

Chairman Harris stated on many occasions residents perceive that there is a speeding violation occurring in their neighborhood. The Township will install the public works radar detector to get actual traffic data to gain a clear understanding of the actual conditions of both the volume and speed of traffic.

Chief Cleary stated that if Mr. Peter's witnesses anything that would benefit the Police Department coming to notify a resident of a potential issue, he is notify Chief Cleary about this.
